

Strategic Communications & Advocacy Analyst, NOB

 23 May 2022

 Colombo, Sri Lanka

Under the overall supervision and guidance of the UNFPA Representative, the Strategic Communications and Advocacy Analyst manages the conceptualization, planning, coordination, implementation, monitoring and evaluation of all communications and advocacy activities and Social and Behaviour Change Communication (SBCC) initiatives of the UNFPA Sri Lanka country office. This comprises critical functional areas of the UNFPA country office in the areas of communications for impact, social and behavioural change (SBCC); communication for development (C4D); and advocacy (with a focus on strategic and policy-related advocacy). He/she acts as strategic advisor to the Country Office leadership in the areas mentioned.

The Strategic Communications and Advocacy Analyst is the focal point for media and communication activities in the country office. He/she provides substantive inputs to media, communication and advocacy aspects of project formulation, planning and implementation. He/she works collaboratively with programme staff in the country office and with regional and headquarters communication and media specialists in UNFPA and other agencies.

Click here to view the full job description and apply.

Open to Sri Lankan nationals only

Application deadline: 23 May 2022, mid-night New York time.