Founded in 1993, IUB is one of the oldest private universities in Bangladesh, with an explicit focus on research and global partnerships. We have a current enrollment of over 10,000 students, over 14,000 alumni and over 430 faculty members. We have five Schools: School of Business and Entrepreneurship (SBE), School of Engineering, Technology and Sciences (SETS), School of Environment and Life Sciences (SELS), School of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences (SLASS), and School of Pharmacy and Public Health (SPPH). There are 13 research Centers.

IUB is located in a beautiful neighborhood at Bashundhara in Dhaka, the capital of Bangladesh. Dhaka is a thriving, colorful and historic metropolis of 20 million people. It is the cultural and economic hub of the country. Dhaka has been developing fast as a modern city and is the country's centre of industrial, commercial, cultural, educational, sports and political activity.

The campus of IUB, sprawling over 3 acres, has an amphitheater, state-of-the art laboratories, well-equipped library with online access to thousands of journals and books, well-equipped classrooms, digital classrooms, lecture galleries, auditorium, gymnasium, food court, playground, medical centre, student support centers, counseling centre, female student dormitory, an alumni office, and a warm community.

Our faculty members are actively engaged in research and publish regularly in peer-reviewed journals. Along with conventional classroom teaching, students are engaged in research relatively early in their studies. IUB has academic research collaborations with various renowned universities around the world.

Our academic curriculum is based on a North American liberal arts model and our medium of instruction is English.

Our business programs are accredited by the ACBSP (Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs), while our engineering programs are accredited by the IEB (Institution of Engineers, Bangladesh). We are in the process of applying for ABET (Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology) accreditation for the engineering programs and for the SACSCOC (Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges) accreditation for the whole university.

IUB currently has three academic terms: Spring, Summer and Autumn with classes commencing in January, May and September.
