

THE BUDDHIST FLAG

Universal Compassion

It signifies the expansive nature of Buddha's compassion, which is boundless and touches all beings.

Yellow — Blessings of Practice

Red stands for the blessings of practice and achievement in Buddhism. It also signifies the energy and strength derived from following the Buddha's teachings.

White — Purity and Liberation

White represents purity and liberation, It is a symbol of spiritual freedom, achieved through enlightenment.

Orange — Essence of Buddhism

Orange symbolizes the essence of Buddhism. It reflects the wisdom of the Buddha's teachings required for spiritual enlightenment.

Blue
Symbolism

Yellow
Essence

Sixth Stripe
Unity of All Virtues