

VACANCIES

NSBM GREEN UNIVERSITY

BE A PART OF A WORLD-CLASS TEAM

National School of Business Management – NSBM Green University, the premier degree-awarding institute in Sri Lanka, with a modern academic environment and world-class facilities, invites applications from suitably qualified candidates for the post of Medical Officer (Full-Time).

UNIVERSITY MEDICAL OFFICER (FULL-TIME)

The Medical Officer will be responsible for the overall management and smooth operation of the NSBM Medical Centre, while providing full-time medical support to the NSBM Green University community, including students, staff, hostel residents, residents, and other relevant stakeholders.

The selected candidate will serve as the primary medical authority of the University and will be expected to provide clinical care, medical guidance, health education, wellness advisory, preventive healthcare support, emergency response coordination, and professional support on health science-related academic matters within the University environment.

NSBM Green University also operates a student hostel with approximately 500 resident students, and therefore the Medical Officer will be expected to support the health, wellbeing, and safety requirements of hostel students in coordination with the relevant administrative and hostel management teams.

A student-friendly, customer-centric, caring, and service-oriented mindset is essential for this role, as the Medical Officer will be required to engage closely with students, staff, parents/guardians when necessary, and internal service units of the University.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

- MBBS Degree from a recognized University.
- Minimum of five (05) years' experience in a clinical and/or medical administrative capacity.
- Experience in managing a medical centre, institutional healthcare facility, university/student health service, hostel-related medical support service, or occupational health environment will be an added advantage.
- Knowledge or experience in health education, preventive healthcare, wellbeing advisory, food safety, hygiene, and student welfare-related medical services will be advantageous.
- Excellent interpersonal, communication, professional judgement, and stakeholder management skills.
- Ability to work independently and respond effectively to medical and health-related requirements in a university environment.
- A student-friendly, customer-centric, caring, and service-oriented attitude is mandatory

An attractive remuneration package beyond industry standards and internal accommodation is on offer for the ideal candidate
